Statement-ll

Capacity of Radio Transmitter stationed in Goa and percentage of capacity utilisation

| Transmitter/ Channel at Goa | Transmitter capacity | Capacity Utilisation within allocated transmission |
|---|---|---|
| Panaji A | 100KWMW | 100% |
| Panaji B | 20 KW MW | 100% |
| Panaji FM (Metro) | 6KWFM | 100% |
| Shortwave Transmitter at HPT, AIR, Bambolim | 250 KW SW (2Nos.) | 100% |

Amendment to the Cinematography Act, 1952

2734. DR.C.NARAYANA REDDY: Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government propose to amend the Cinematography Act, 1952;

(b) whether any core Committee has been appointed to discuss the amendments; and

(c) if so, by when the Bill is expected to be introduced in Parliament?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRIMATI SUSHMA SWARAJ): (a) to (c) The Central Board of Film Certification (CBFC) has constituted a Core Committee to consider the suggestions received from various quarters as well as the guidelines prevalent in various countries and make recommendations for amendment of the Cinematograph Act. the rules made thereunder and the certification guideline. No proposal has, however, been received by the Government from CBFC so far.